MOW Diablo Region's Nutrition Services Division Manager Recipient of East Bay Philanthropy Awards "Meeting the Moment" Award

Meals on Wheels Diablo Region is pleased to announce Nutrition Services Division Manager Nancy Raniere will receive the 2021 "Meeting the Moment" award at the 11th Annual East Bay Philanthropy Awards.

"Nancy's hard work and commitment ensured that no senior missed a meal delivery throughout the pandemic, as we saw a 40% increase in the number of clients needing meals. All of us at MOW Diablo Region want to congratulate her on this well-deserved recognition," says MOW Diablo Region Executive Director, Caitlin Sly.

Raniere is a native of Brentwood and has worked with Meals on Wheels Diablo Region for over 14 years. "Meals on Wheels Diablo Region has been a very important part of my life. There are so many seniors in our community who are suffering from food insecurity and isolation. I am proud to work with an organization whose mission is to empower these seniors so they can live out their remaining years safely with dignity. This award reflects the effort of all of our team members in helping to end senior hunger in the community. I am deeply honored and humbled," says Raniere.

Raniere joins a group of elite community leaders, philanthropists, employers, volunteers, and youth whose inspiring efforts are at the very center of overcoming some of our region's most profound challenges. The East Bay Leadership Council's Philanthropy Awards are presented by Wells Fargo and will take place virtually on Thursday, November 18, 2021, from 9 am-10am.
